

WMST joins DC State Athletics Association

The Washington Math Science Technology (WMST) Public Charter High School Panthers have joined the District of Columbia State Athletics Association (DCSAA), under the direction of Mr. Clark Ray, Office of the State Superintendent of Education (OSSE) Statewide Director of Athletics.

An initiative announced by D.C. Mayor Vincent Gray and Clark Ray on May 30, DCSAA makes all schools, including DCPS and charter schools, eligible in Washington, D.C., to play for State Championships in all sports.

The upcoming boys and girls basketball seasons start officially on Nov. 1, 2012, according to Coach Gerald Hilliard, WMST boys basketball coach and athletic director.
